REPORTS

COMPOSITE REPORT OF THE DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS OF THE HOLSTON ANNUAL CONFERENCE TO THE NINETY-FOURTH SESSION, HELD AT KNOXVILLE, TENNESSEE, OCTOBER 13, 1937.

First of all, we wish to express our most sincere gratitude to God for His unbounded love and our unmerited blessings. For the opportunity of another year of life to labor for the salvation of immortal souls, and for the success that has attended our activities to extend the Kingdom of God in Holston Conference and throughout the world.

Our Sainted Dead

As always, death has invaded our ranks. This year the following servants of God have departed to be forever with their Lord: Rev. W. L. Oliver, Rev. J. C. Ragan, Mrs. J. J. Robinette, Mrs. G. T. Newcomb, Mrs. E. A. Bishop, Mrs. C. W. Miller, Mrs. J. M. Dew, Mrs. Roberts, Mr. Shupe and Rev. M. B. Gass. "Servants of God, well done, the battle is fought, the victory won and thou art crowned at last."

The Spiritual Achievements of the Year 1937

The most important and encouraging phase of our work in the Holston Conference this year, is the great emphasis that has been placed upon the central purpose of the Christian church—the salvation of immortal souls, and in the reclaiming of backsliders. The fire of evangelism has burned brightly upon the altars of our church. By historic heritage, we should excell in the field of Evangelism—the redemption of sinners was the Divine characteristic of early Methodism. This should be the distinctive feature of our great church today. If we fail in this field of endeavor, we lose the mighty arm of power, in extending the kingdom of God among men.

Effective service has been rendered and excellent results accomplished, by the pastors exchanging cooperatively in doing their revival work. We, the District Superintendents, recommend the extension and continuation of this type of work within the bounds of the conference.

Approximately 2,300 have been saved and approximate 2,000 members have been added to the church membership during the year 1937.

Despite the many additions to the church, some Districts will show a slight decrease in membership, due to a thorough revision of faulty church records. We should continue the careful and lawful revision of church records, for the records of church membership in Holston Conference are in a very inaccurate condition. Nevertheless, we believe the finished report will show a healthy gain in membership.

Material Progress

It seems unadvisable to report the improvements of each charge and church in the conference separately, it would be possible to mention the major improvements, but we deem this unfair to the churches which have labored faithfully, but have made only minor improvements. Suffice it to say, that a majority of the pastoral charges have made some improvement, either by building a new church or parsonage, or in reconditioning, remodeling, or redecorating the old ones. Other churches have installed a pipe organ, heating plant, or added new Sunday school rooms. Still others have bought lots upon which to build new churches, or to re-locate the present church and parsonage buildings.

The total amount spent on improvements and paid on old indebtedness is approximately one hundred thousand dollars.

Work of Organizations and Other Christian Activities

The District Schools in Christian living have become a fixture in all the Districts. These schools have been the best ever this year. They are doing a splendid piece of work in training the youth of the Conference for Christian leadership. The work of these schools is highly commendable, and will be of inestimable value to the future of the church.

The experts of religious education have decided that the only way to make their programme a success, is for the pastor and lay leaders of individual churches, to set up their own program of leadership training. Many such leadership training classes have been functioning in different churches this year. This plan seems to be a wise one.

Daily Vacational Bible Schools have been conducted throughout the Conference and encouraging reports have been announced, telling of their success.

The advanced leadership training school, held at Athens each year, is doing excellent work in training leaders for doing special Christian work in the various districts. Rev. H. G. Williamson, the Director of Religious Education in the Holston Conference, deserves much credit in promoting the above activities in the Conference.

The Ladies Aid Societies, Home and Foreign Missionary Societies, and the Laymen's Association, have all been active and have accomplished a fine piece of work. We simply could not get along without the splendid work of the good women and laymen.

Our school of ministerial training, being held at Athens, is doing a much needed work in preparing our ministers, who have not had the advantage of a college and seminary education, for a more effective ministry. We commend the work of this school and express our appreciation for its director, R. A. Kilburn.

Colleges and Universities

The two educational institutions within the bounds of the district, "The University of Chattanooga" and "Tennessee Wesleyan" command our highest respect and call for our enthusiastic support. The University of Chattanooga is growing in student body and civic influence. Under the leadership of President Alex Guerry is maintained a moral standard that holds the institution far above the reproach of the most critical. Tennessee Wesleyan under the leadership of Dr. James L. Robb was never in better financial condition. The student body is growing and the quality of the work in behalf of the church and Christian education is of high character. As a Junior College, it is commanding the respect of the world of education and its president is recognized as one of the most outstanding leaders of Junior Colleges of the country.

World Service

The total results of the Million Unit Fellowship Campaign in the Holston Conference are very gratifying. A more intense educational and spiritual effort should be put forth in the interest of this worthy cause next conference year. This campaign ought to specialize in the development of the spiritual life of the people, making that the basis of increased missionary giving. This will continue a great step forward in the progress of Methodism. The grand total of world Service monies collected this year will show a decided advance over last year.

The Retired Minister's Campaign

We are greatly disappointed in not reaching the goal set for a more adequate support for retired ministers. We still believe it could have been accomplished had all concerned used the limit of their ability to make this worthy dream come true. Dr. William M. Dye and his good wife deserve our eternal gratitude and thanks for their labor and generosity in promoting this great cause. Rev. Alden Eddy has been busy in a follow-up campaign during the Conference year and has done a commendable piece of work in the interest of the retired Ministers fund.

State and Future of the Church Historic Beginnings of Methodism

During the middle and latter part of the 18th century, a great spiritual awakening swept across England and Wales. Quite a few historians credit this renewal of interest in religion, of saving England from a Civil War or a revolution similar to that which drenched France with human blood.

This revival of religion was the mother of Methodism. The first love, and the one great passion of the early Methodists, was the salvation, not only of England her colonies, but of the entire world. The new converts were dominated by two dynamic motives: holiness of heart and the Salvation of sinners.

Spread and Organization of the Early Revival Movement

The movement spread over England and leaped across the world like an uncontrollable prairie fire. For many years billows of salvation, like ocean waves, rolled across the hearts of men. The Wesleyan Revival culminated in the organization of the Methodist Episcopal Church, which eventually became one of the greatest spiritual forces known to modern civilization.

Type of Character In Infant Church

As long as Methodism remained true to her first love and lofty purpose, she prospered. God filled her heart with a divine power which was irresistible. Her communicants possessed an experience of salvation that was irrepressible, full of a holy zeal and unbounded enthusiasm. They went about doing good, spreading the Gospel of good news, giving a living testimony of the saving power of a risen Lord. They were noted for their steadfastness and triumphant faith, their courage in the face of prosecution, poverty, and death. The adversities of pioneer civilization could not quench their undaunted spirit or dim the glow of their burning hearts.

Influences That Have Affected the Life of the Church

Let us turn from the glorious and triumphant past of Methodism and look upon the status of our beloved church today. One fact looms up like a mountain peak above the plain. It humiliates us deeply and should humble us in sack-cloth and ashes of a true repentance. When Methodism increased greatly in numbers, and became rich in worldly goods, her spiritual power and passion somewhat diminished. She has neglected to emphasize the prophetic message, ceased to preach her great doctrines, turned somewhat from her one great passion and lofty purpose, the salvation of souls and spreading of scriptural holiness across the world, and has become entangled and bogged down in a misplaced emphasis of a social gospel, religious education, over-organization, and a program of church building beyond her ability to pay. Because her spiritual life has not kept pace with her material and educational progress.

Some of the Influences of a Changing Social and Economic Order

These things have created such a spirit and burden and taken so much of our time, ability, and energy, that it has dimmed the glow and cooled the warmth of our first passion and love. We have lost much of joyful spirit and triumphant aggressive faith. Thank God for the encouraging fact that the fires of religion have not been completely extinguished upon the altars of our beloved Methodism. But we have permitted a critical, scientific, modernistic theology, so-called, and a changing economic order to effectively bank the fires of religion upon the altar of our churches. It has also weakened our faith in that extra supernatural, divine element in religion, which is the birthright of Methodism, and by which Jesus performed all His miracles and used in all His ministry.

Wisdom and Foresight of the Founders of Methodism

If you covet a better understanding of the existing conditions in Methodism and Protestantism, ponder the wisdom and foresight of the founders and organizers of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Professor Lavens M. Thomas II, of Emory University, has discovered that in the first Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church, adopted by the first Conference at which the Church was organized, December 27, 1784, there appeared this advice on church buildings: "Let all churches be built plain and decent, and with free seats, but not more expensive than is absolutely unavoidable, otherwise the necessity of raising money will make rich men necessary to us, but, if so, we must be dependent upon them, yea, and be governed by them, and then farewell to Methodist Discipline, if not Methodist doctrine too." (Discipline, 1788, p. 35). That statement remained in the Discipline for 82 years, then the penetrating statement on the possible effect of expensive church buildings dropped out.

Prophecy of Church Fathers Fulfilled

Another statement approximately 71 years later will reveal the edifying fact that the prophecy of the organizers of the Methodist Episcopal church, has been fulfilled in our day. The statement is as follows: "Three years ago Dr. Edgar DeWitt Jones described a walk down that notable street of churches, Woodard Avenue, Detroit.

He singled out six churches located within ten blocks, and says, that their financial burdens and struggles 'illustrate the tragedy of Protestantism.' "This quotation makes very plain that the burden on churches, typical of thousands throughout the country, are primarily burdens of self-maintenance and debt services." Is not this true in the Methodist Episcopal church? If I am not mistaken, in a statement to me, this year, from the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, there is over two thousand such churches calling for aid at the present time. This condition presents a delicate and dangerous situation. The heart-breaking and paralyzing financial struggles have greatly dampened the spiritual life of many churches and have left little time and energy, to preach the gospel and minister to the salvation of sinners, or to nurture and enrich Christian character.

Course of Action In Present Day Problems

A halt must be called: The time is ripe to go back reasonably, in a sensible way, to the wisdom and advice of the founders of Methodism. That means that we build no church beyond our ability to pay. We must realize the folly of placing our financial responsibility beyond the permanent development of our people, in the grace of giving. If we burden the laity beyond their vision and growth in Christian character and in the grace of giving or tax them beyond their vision and experience, then we shall be guilty in a religious sense, as were the bankers and business men in a financial sense, in their wild cat investments in 1929—and we cannot expect any other result in religion, than what happened in business and brought the greatest depression in the history of America. "The heart of the whole matter, and nothing in the world so vitally affects the future of the Christian church—is that so easily the church can become involved in the established order of things in the social and economic world that it finds any kind of effective protest against the evils of that system increasingly difficult".

The church is not compelled by the force of circumstances to surrender its principles, but it must depend upon wealth and the established order for support, and if the established social and economic order is not motivated by Christian principles, there is a grave danger that the church will become a part of the very thing it should struggle against. That is exactly what has happened in present world conditions. Perhaps here we discover the reason for much of the distrust of laboring men and labor leaders concerning the church.

The underlying philosophy of the present social system is not much different, from the distilled piece of prudence, "Don't bite the hand it should struggle against. That is exactly what has happened in often such an increase in prudence that the Church's lips are sealed even in the presence of a glaring wrong. The result is an ironical anti-climax of having built a magnificent place in which to say something and then have nothing to say. What shall it profit a church to gain the whole world of Gothic arches and stained glass windows and lose its voice!" The church must be made free from this insidious octopus or its life and future success is in great danger.

The Content Of The Gospel Has Been Enlarged

It has become increasingly difficult to preach the gospel in our day, because the content of the gospel has advanced beyond the stage of just "Good News." We are now reading in social justice, destruction of the whiskey traffic, outlawing child labor, demanding honesty and fairness in politics, and a living wage for all. The underlying reason that makes it difficult to preach the gospel today,—is that the social and economic order is motivated by selfish impulses and principles that are contrary to the plain teaching of Christ.

Christian people are a part of this self-centered social and economic order, woven into it like the different threads of a garment. They do not, cannot, live alone. They are part and parcel of the whole fabric. Many are dissatisfied with their compromising position, but the necessity of a livelihood makes them subservient unwillingly to a selfish and unchristian system. Others knowingly or ignorantly practice the old Hedenistic philosophy of life! "Eat, drink, and be merry today, for tomorrow you may die." No use to worry and struggle against the system and be penalized; "when in Rome, do as the Romans."

In the church are men and women whose business and business methods are in direct opposition to the plain principles of the Sermon on the Mount. There are also, wealthy and well to do members, who in many instances, carry the main financial burden of the Church, who are ignorant of the true meaning of the gospel of Christ. Their religion consists of a form of godliness, but their life deny the true principles and power thereof. The success of the Church is endangered because too often the worldly minded people are permitted to control and dictate the policies of the church.

The Effect Of A Selfish Economic And Social Order Upon The Laity And Ministry Of The Church

It is nothing more than natural and human, that the influence of a selfish social and economic order, will be carried over into the christian church. The laity and ministry of the church are human. It is not any wonder then, that an intelligent minister, who is conscious of the fact that if he does not use diplomacy and tact, he will endanger his living, popularity, and what the world calls success. Under such pressure, many ministers are tempted too, and do tone down a virile Gospel message. Is this not the great curse of the ministry and church in our day? For God to use a layman or a minister effectively, in building the kingdom of God on earth, there must be utter and complete abandonment, without fear of the consequences, to the principles for which Christ gave his life and shed his most precious blood. Too many ministers and church members have chosen the primrose path of least resistance and yielded to the selfish motive for position, honor, and a comfortable living. Perhaps here is discovered the reason why many wealthy churches, magnificently equipped, whose budgets are scaled from five thousand to a hundred thousand dollars, yet report not a single soul saved at Annual Conference. If souls are born into the kingdom of God, minister and laymen must suffer the birth-pangs of redemption, otherwise no souls are born anew.

The lonely path of service which Jesus trod thru all his ministry, was one without a home and home comforts. Christ himself said that the birds and animals were housed better than he. The rough road of doing good and laboring for the salvation of men, which Jesus traveled, wended its way thru Gethsemane and ended in an agonizing thorn-crowned death on Calvary. Even after most two thousand years has rolled by, most men find it impossible to think kindly of Judas who betrayed the Christ. Yet, in our age, there is little shame attached to the layman or minister, who seeks first a comfortable home, a prominent church, popularity, social prominence, and sometimes more than an adequate financial security.

But this is not the most serious part of the matter. Laymen and ministers are justifying this Philosophy of life by saying, it is the psychology of getting along with people. Did Christ get along with all people, to be comfortable? what a paradox! No, this is not pessimism, or destructive criticism of the Church, as some will say—on the contrary it is the plain truth, honestly stated, which has shorn the church of much of her saving power and gospel message. But we have been too proud and jealous of the church's good name, too fearful of acknowledging the truth, and too afraid of the consequences to the church, to do anything effectively about it.

But the biggest tragedy of all, is the tendency on the part of the leader of the church, to permit themselves to be influenced by such a policy in the administration and direction of the Holy Church of God. These are strong statements I know, but are they not justifiable in the defense of truth and of dangerous consequences to the Christian church? If the life and ministry and principles of Jesus is any criterion in the guidance of His church these statements are amply justified.

The Integrity Of The Church Should Be Unquestionable

Judgment must begin at the house of God. The righteousness and honesty of the church must be above reproach even in the face of her enemies. The church has lost much of the confidence and respect of the multitude, because she has not in many respects adhered conscientiously to the principles of Christ, in dealing firmly with sin among the laity and the ministry. It is to be regretted that church Discipline is almost a thing of the past. Right and wrong is in eternal conflict. There must be no compromise. In the majority of cases, the right and wrong is easily distinguishable. The great sin of today, is not that we do not know the right from wrong, but knowing the right we fail to do it. This blot must be erased from our shield of integrity. The church purchased by the blood of God, must be honest, and courageous in all things or forfeit the faith and confidence of mankind—and justy so.

The Central Purpose Of The Church Is The Salvation Of The World

While religious education, Social Gospel, Organization, higher training, building of adequate churches, the raising of finances, are all vastly important in balanced proportion, but there is grave danger of permitting these necessary things to deflect us from the central purpose of the church, which is the redemption of mankind. Was not this the mistake of the Doctors of Israel? Let this historic instance teach us the folly of putting means before the life and spirit of the church. May God help us to see the wisdom, and the absolute necessity of making the great commission of the first importance, then unify and concentrate all church machinery in its accomplishment. This is the only way the church has an iota of a chance to save a lost world.

To What Degree Has The Church Christianized The World?

The time has come when the Christian church must honestly ask, and intelligently rethink that soul disturbing question: To what extent has christianity realized the dream of a resurrected Christ, which was a world empire, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

The Church and the world is in a state of bewilderment. Neither christianity or the nations of mankind have been able to eradicate the fortified evils of modern society, or lick a world depression. The acme of human ingenuity and wisdom have made a miserable failure. The stability and progress of civilization seemingly stands before an impassable wall. The standards and principles that have guided us safely in the past, are being junked wholesale in this modern age. Yet, the best efforts and ability of man have failed to direct successfully in the re-birth of a New economic and Social order. Christianity has never been given a fair trial in the solution of the problems of mankind. Why not test out, and prove for all time, whether or not, God's plan for humanity through the revelation of Jesus Christ, will actually succeed in the solving the enigma of human life.

The redemptive plan of God thru Christ, has been in operation almost two thousand years. The salvation of mankind, the gospel of temperance, Good-will, Peace, and social justice have been preached over most of the world. All christians rejoice over the marvelous achievements of Christianity. Yet, it might be illuminating, to ask, how well we have succeeded in making the mind of the world the mind of Christ.

At the present time war clouds are floating across the sky of the civilized world. The nations of the earth with all their resources, are planning and working, night and day, in order to be prepared to defend their very life. The factories of Mars, in feverish haste, are turning out their implements of death and destruction. America is being drowned in Beer and hard liquor. Gambling is on the increase. Selfishness, Social injustice, and other evils, are ravaging our land. Across the sea, Atheistic Communism has denounced God, as a myth, and Jesus Christ as the bastard son of a Jewish woman. Russian, Italy, and Germany, have bestowed upon a Stalin, a Hitler, a Mussolini. the prerogatives of God. The Christian church has been paralyzed or destroyed in these countries. Russia, especially, is sending missionaries over the world, who are preaching her Red doctrines with a fervor and courage, not unlike that which characterized the preaching of the Apostles of the early Christian church. World conditions has inspired that great christian statesman, E. Stanley Jones, to say concerning the clash of principles among the nations, "It is either Christ or Communism that will win supremacy in the earth."

The Church Has Access To Inexhaustible Power

One of the mysteries of God's plan of human redemption, is the startling fact that God is depending upon men thru Christ to save a lost world. Yet, the great majority of mankind are unsaved. God's arm is not shortened that it cannot save. His omnipotent power has not diminished. The resources of God are inexhaustible. The redemptive power of Christ, is ample to redeem a world, or ten thousand worlds. Why then has not our world been saved?

The greatest problem of God is not the wickedness of the wicked, but the great sin of unbelief in His church. Christ's disciples were humiliated, because they could not cast out devils in the presence of the multitude. Privately, they asked Christ, why they could not. He answered, because of your unbelief. That answer still remains true to Christ's disciples who have not accomplished their task after the death of almost 20 centuries. By faith thru Christ, the Church of God is well able to redeem all sinful men. Unbelief will strip the church of her unlimited, irresistible power, because of which, the world will be lost. Will Christ find faith on earth when he returns?

The Crucial Test Of Christianity

Christendom and civilization are standing at the cross-roads of their existence. If christianity fails to fulfill her mission, the collapse of civilization is inevitable. The Christian church is being tested to the very foundation of her soul. The combined forces of a wicked godless world, are snapping like a pack of hungry wolves, at her very life. Will the church be able to stand having done all to stand?

The Church Should Face Its Task With Courage And Honesty

The Church of God must be honest and very courageous. It must not hesitate to take an inventory of the state and condition of its own life. Facts are arbitrary, but they must be reckoned with, if a course of action is charted wisely. In the light of this logic, after a careful unbiased scientific examination of soul of the church, we find that with her present faith, experience, and power, that the church is not meeting very successfully, the blind selfishness, and deadly evils of a changing Social order.

A Great Conviction In The Church

There is a growing conviction in the church, that the church must have a new baptism of power. That we need to get back to the experience of the early Apostles and the founders of Methodism. One of the most hopeful signs pointing in this direction, is the fact that the leaders of the Methodist Episcopal Church, are advising Methodists to seek the Aldergate experience. It is imperative that we regain the experience of having, and keeping our hearts strangely warmed by the Spirit of the living God. There is great danger of preaching and living, becoming a mere function, instead of a thing of eternal life and eternal death. Methodism must be refilled with the Holy Spirit of God.

What Shall The Church Do In The Present Crisis?

History repeats itself. The condition of the Christian church today, is similar to the condition that existed in the Jewish church in Christ's day. The Doctors and High priests of Israel had lost sight of the reality and certainty of true religion. The true spirit of Jewish faith was obscured by form, law, and hair-splitting theological question. So blind were the leaders of Israel to truth, that even the Son of God was crucified by them as a malefactor. In our day, Christ and the average christian, are having a soul-disturbing experience with the hair-splitting Doctors of Divinity in the christian church.

What course does Divine wisdom direct the church to take in present world conditions? Play the part of cowards and weaklings? Preferring ease and worldly comfort. Loosing life by investing it selfishly? Shall we still trust in diplomacy, tact, soft speech and action, instead of the Spirit of the eternal God? Will not this course of action jeopardize the growth and achievements of the christian church for many centuries?

No! We cannot, we must not do this no matter what the cost! Perhaps we need a new baptism of blood, to purify the church, to prepare and empower her, for a new conquest of the world for Christ. If that will revitalize Methodism and rekindle the fires of vital religion, renew the Aldergate experience, so that she may fulfill her destiny in the world, as for myself, I pray God to send it now, and let it begin in me!

The Cross In Christianity

Jesus said, "He that saveth his life shall lose it, but he that loseth his life for my sake shall save it". "He that forsaketh not father and mother, brother and sister, is not worthy of me" "if any man would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me".

Christian, leaders of the people, perhaps we possess too much of the spirit of the Pharisees and priests of Israel, whose religion found expression in pious platitudes. We point to E. Staley Jones and Ka g-a-wa, as examples of what the power of God can do in human life. Yet, we steadfastly refuse to bear the cross, or wear the crown of thorns that produced them. Leaders and christians, like the above examples, must be the rule, and not the exception in the church, if a godless world is ever saved. It was said of Jesus, "He saved others, but he himself he could not save". Which being interpreted means, if we continue to refuse to bear the cross and save ourselves, the world will be lost—for the cross holds the central place in Christianity and the salvation of mankind.

The Equitable Equalization Of Salaries

In closing this document, I wish to present to the Bishop, District Superintendents and to the entire conference, one important way by which we may bear the cross for the salvation of sinners—I mean the equitable equalization of salaries in the Holston Conference.

The country church is the cradle of religion. The city church could not get along without the feeder country church. The simple faith and inherent honesty of the country people, is the hope of the future christianity. Here is the most strategic fortress of modern christendom.

But the christian church at large, is doing practically nothing at present, to defend this citadel of power. Thousands of country churches have been abandoned during the last fifteen or twenty years. This condition is a grave menace to universal christianity. The country church is the base from which christianity will make her stand to survive in modern civilization.

If this is true, and a careful analysis of facts point that way, steps should be immediately taken, to furnish the best trained leadership, that the church can mobilize, and assign them to country circuits. The equitable equalization of salaries within the bounds of the conference would help to furnish an adequate living wage for these leaders until the work could be made self-supporting. The wisdom of such a step will be apparent within a period of ten years. Such a policy should not only be carried out in the Holston conference, it should be so continuously agitated, that it would finally become the universal plan of Methodism throughout the world.

Respectfully submitted,

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

REPORT OF THE SCHOOL AND COLLEGE DIVISION OF THE HOLSTON CONFERENCE BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Division of Schools and Colleges of the Conference Board of Education rejoices in the report that the schools within the bounds of the Conference, namely, Tennessee Wesleyan College and the University of Chattanooga, have increased enrollments for the current year and that both have been able to meet their financial obligations in full. They have in every way shown signs of healthy progress.

The committee appointed by the Board of Education to make a survey of the status of Christian education in the Colleges completed its report during the year. This report was presented to the Board, was amended and copies of the amended report were ordered sent to the Boards of Trustees of Tennessee Wesleyan College and the University of Chattanooga.

The Division reports that the liquidation of Murphy Collegiate Institute is still in process.

The Division of Schools and Colleges submits the following recommendations:

1. That this Conference year the amount of $6600 be the goal for our educational benevolence; the district superintendents to determine the share of each individual charge.

2. That the amount received be apportioned as last year—72% for Tennessee Wesleyan, 25% for the University of Chattanooga, 3% for administration. The Board of Education last year elected Professor C. E. Rogers, Johnson City, as treasurer of this fund. He has been most faithful in the performance of his duties.

3. That the churches of the conference, mindful of the worth of these two institutions and of the pride which all feel in them, take more responsibility for the raising of this fund during the next conference year and that they cooperate heartily in plans to be formulated for this campaign.

4. That the following men be named as conference representatives on the board of trustees of Tennessee Wesleyan Junior College: William M. Dye, G. T. Francisco, J. Rollo Emert.

5. That we be mindful of the increased responsibility that will devolve upon the entire conference, the Board of Education, and possibly more especially upon the division of schools and colleges in that Board as we look toward unification with its as yet undetermined effect upon church-related schools and colleges in East Tennessee.

6. That we all strive for a closer community of interests between these two educational institutions and the annual conference, realizing that the aims of colleges and conference alike are fundamentally and finally the same. To this end the division of schools and colleges of the board of education is intended to serve as a clearing-house for constructive criticism and as a channel for official communication between the two groups, with no authority vested in it but with an advisory capacity that may well serve the common interests of both groups.

7. That in the interest of early functioning of the Board of Education including the Division of Schools and Colleges, a session of the newly appointed Board of Education be held before the adjournment of the Conference for the purpose of organization.

The Division of Religious Education in the Local Church

As followers of Jesus Christ we must ever keep before us the one main purpose of our ministry. To be helpful in interpreting the great spiritual purpose of the Church is one of the functions of this division of the Board of Education.

It is the task of the Church to produce individuals ruled by the purpose of God, who in turn will set about transforming society into the kingdom of God. The aim of every pastor is therefore for himself and for every one in his charge, "Complete Christian living, which includes belief in God as revealed in Jesus Christ and vital fellowship with Him, personal acceptance of Christ as Saviour and His way of life; the Christian motive in the making of all life-choices, and whole-hearted participation in and constructive contribution to the progressive realization of a social order controlled by Christian principles." * Religious education, therefore, is the pulling together of the resources of the local church to do this work. It is the local Church in action for the realization of the ideals of the kingdom of God.

The challenge that is before us to hold fast the soul to the kingdom from the earliest childhood to old age: a child who has come to love God as naturally as it does its parents; a youth, thrilled with the vision of a great plan evolving through the universe; a young adult, daring to think that perhaps God is planning a better world than the one we now have; men, women, banding themselves together into a fellowship to help each other live more like Christ; individuals, sensing God's dependence on common persons like themselves working with Him to bring about a new world; in short, the whole matter of guiding human lives to fit into the divine scheme of things; this is religious education. This is the task of the Church.

If the Christian Church is to work toward one common goal, if the kingdom of God is to come on earth as it is in heaven, it will be because each local Church is doing its part, consciously working unitedly with every other Church. If we of Holston Conference do this, it will be because we pastors are committed to Christian principles in practice in every area of life and stand together, working cooperatively as brethren, in this common task.

The program of Religious Education in Holston Conference has such a fundamental purpose as this as its base. It should be participated in by all groups, both rural and urban, laymen and pastors, youth groups and adults if these ideals are to have reality in bringing about the kingdom of God. To nurture these interests, to stimulate efforts and processes in the local Church, is the purpose of this division of religious education of the Board of Education and we look to you of the Conference to support the program during the coming year.

We deeply appreciate the fact that District Superintendents, pastors, Churches, lay workers, in increasing numbers, are actually working at this task in their respective fields. A heartening response is indicated by this year's Rally Day Report. More Churches than ever before have reached their Rally Day goal in full. Sixty-six Churches contributed a total amount of $1,799.00 for this work. This year, since practically the sole source of support of the budget is from Rally Day offerings, let us recognize the fact that if the program is to be continued as a practical aid to the local Church in working toward the above objectives each station and circuit is depended upon to do its part.

The budget for next year is as follows:

REPORT OF WORLD SERVICE COMMITTEE

1. We would recognize the launching of the Million Unit Fellowship Movement as a moving of the Holy Spirit upon the hearts of the people called Methodist under the High command of our noble Bishop Keeney, who by his careful preparation of the work in laying a spiritual foundation has made this new advance in our missionary enterprise not something transient but abiding.

2. Inasmuch as the pledges made to this Movement are for a year at a time, we therefore urge that we begin immediately after this conference to obtain renewal of all such pledges for another year, preferably on the first Sunday of November, since most Sunday Schools and Churches already observe the first Sunday of each month as Missionary Sunday. Let every effort be made to obtain additional pledges from individuals and groups, such as Classes in the Sunday School, and Epworth Leagues.

3. We again urge every church to forward such money monthly, or at least quarterly, to O. W. Auman, treasurer, at 740 Rush St., Chicago.

4. Let us never lose sight of the spiritual aspect of this movement, seeking to match every unit of money subscribed with the winning of a soul to the kingdom and the Church.

5. Let every pastor and his World Service committee make use of the free literature available from each of the Boards comprising the World Service Commission. Let this literature be distributed to every home in our constituency, through the Sunday School, home visitation and the use of a display table in the vestibule of the church.

6. Let us observe World Missionary Sunday on some appropriate date, using programs furnished free for that purpose, at which time and other times we preach definitely on our World Missionary Task.

7. Let Monthly Missionary Sunday be observed regularly with suitable worship programs and instruction, regular payment of pledges with individual records carefully kept, by class and group secretaries, with constant appeal for new pledges, so this enterprise may not sink into the usual financial appeal, merely, but a deep SPIRITUAL UNDERTAKING.

8. In view of all this let us as a conference here and now accept the quota suggested for us by the World Service Commission as our goal and set out to raise 2408 units this coming year, with the way open for an ever widening horizon until we shall some day reach the ideal of "AS MUCH FOR OTHERS AS FOR OURSELVES."

D. W. DONALDSON, Chairman.

REPORT OF SOCIAL SERVICE COMMITTEE

This committee desires to share first of all some convictions which we feel underlie the total program of the church as it works to make the kingdoms of this world into the kingdom of God.

1. Conviction: We believe we live in a World that is unfinished. A world that never was so plastic as it is today. This means that Christianity faces an unprecedented opportunity for making an impact for Christ and His principles in the next quarter century, especially in this section of the South where great changes are taking place.

2. Conviction: There is not an individual gospel and a social gospel. There is one gospel; the Good News of Jesus Christ for individuals and for society. This whole gospel must be proclaimed anew from the pulpits of the Methodist Churches and lived out by Methodist ministers and laymen in all the areas of life, including church, home, and community.

3. Conviction: That in the achievement of the kingdom of God among men, we are "laborers together with God." We believe in a God who is alive and at work at the task of redeeming, transforming, and making new this needy world about us. This God Who laid hold on the Patriarchs, spoke through the Prophets, revealed Himself fully in Christ, is everlastingly brooding over and passionately longing for the extension of His kingdom.

4. Conviction: We believe in the ultimate triumph of righteousness, and the Kingdom of God among men. We believe the stars in their courses are for the triumph of right in the affairs of men. The Universe, at its center, supports the good. We believe the Church today must march forward in the light of, and inspired by such faith.

We believe Christ's challenge for the Holston Conference is that we do our part to do away with the evils of life which blight and wreck the lives of children, youth and adults.

Among these great evils is the evil of poverty. We believe that it is the purpose of God that the natural resources of this great section be made available for bringing the more abundant life for all the people of this part of God's world.

Another one of the great evils of life which we are called on to do something about is war. We are deeply conscious of the darkening war clouds on the horizon. We must pray for peace, we must do our part to educate for peace, we must do our part to remove the causes of war, and promote the spirit of love and good will among men.

Another one of the great evils which Christ challenges to do something about is the evil of alcoholic beverages. We must educate and train and evangelize youth and adults concerning the evils of this terrible force for the destruction of persons made in the image of God.

On the basis of the above convictions and challenges we suggest:

1. Sermons on the implications of the principles and ideals of Jesus for business, society, government, home, school and community.
2. The organization of small forum groups in each church for the discussion of the problems of life in the light of Christian teaching.
3. A program of education in each church on the Christian's attitude toward material values and proper use of material values, on Christian patriotism and world peace, on the implications of the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man for all human relationships.
4. That we ministers and laymen alike begin anew to put the spirit of Christ to practice in church, and school, and home, and factory, and office, and politics, and in every realm of our experience.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM

Revival fires on the altars of Methodism are still burning. Our great Church was born in the heat and fervor of one of the most wonderful revivals of religion since the days of Saint Paul. In the early days, most every one of our churches came into being as a result of Evangelistic effort. Beginning with the Aldergate Street experience, the Methodists have gone everywhere preaching and teaching that men and women should be born of the Spirit.

We need again to call attention to our heritage as Methodists and to emphasize anew our evangelistic mission. This is all the more necessary for us now since our Conference reports reveal a shortage in church membership and a falling off in conversions and baptisms for the last year.

We wish to recommend that special attention be given to our work of evangelism. There is as much need now for real repentance and submission to Christ as in any past day. And there is as much reality and power in the Gospel as ever.

We would not in any sense divorce evangelism from religious education. Evangelism that is not educational in its very essence is futile and worthless. Religious Education that is not fundamentally evangelistic is devoid of permanent value. The two should go together—the two are one.

In evangelism and revival meetings, there are the true and the false. We want to avoid extravagant emotionalism and senseless fanaticism which serve to discredit religion among our intelligent people.

Dr. Fifer in the September 9 issue of the Christian Advocate spoke our sentiments on this subject:

"A famous religious leader once aptly said that one proof of the divine character of the Christian religion was in its power to survive the falsehoods and frauds which had been attached to it by ignorant and fanatical folks whose emotions exceeded their brains in quality. Established and reputable religion has no endorsement for seven-year-old-boy preachers: for tests of faith which are ridiculous and disgraceful; for parade of former sins and vices as advertising medium for patronage or as exceptional preparation for evangelistic power; for the street level method of securing attendance; for slang, semi-vulgarity and off-color tinge in pulpit vocabulary. Not one of these practices can be reconciled with Jesus and His method as a preacher. Stunts and freaks have no place in true religious programs."

As we come to celebrate the Aldergate Street Experience of John Wesley during the year 1938, let us all pray that our Methodist Churches may be swept into a great revival of spiritual power and vital religious experience.

To every Methodist preacher, we would say in the language of Paul to Timothy:

". . . Do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry." (II Timothy 4:5.)

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE CRESWELL,

J. M. DEW,

REPORT OF THE HOLSTON CONFERENCE COMMISSION FOR COOPERATION WITH THE TENNESSEE VALLEY AUTHORITY

According to the recommendations of the Annual Conference of last year, your Commission, through its Chairman, has made certain contacts with the Tennessee Valley Authority development which reveal the fact that the Government Survey, made in connection with the building of the Chickamauga Dam, calls for certain public property which in some instances joins to our Church property in Soddy and Dayton, Tennessee.

Therefore, with the likelihood that some of our Church property will be affected by the building of the Chickamauga Dam, we recommend the continuation of the Commission.

And, we further recommend that the one ($100.00) hundred dollars loan made to the Solway church in the Harriman district through the sale of Church property in the Norris Dam area be made a gift; and, that the note be cancelled.

Respectfully submitted by the Commission.

JOE M. HAMPTON, Chairman.

RESOLUTION

To the Ninety-fourth Session of Holston Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church:

Whereas, There is found to be great need of immediate aid to the dependents of members of Conference and of the Accepted Supply pastors, in the event of their death, a group of ministers working within the bounds of the Johnson City District after discussing how we might help to supply the need, ask me to formulate a plan which has as its purpose to assist in helping the family of members and accepted supplies, to pay burial expenses and to bring about a greater sense of brotherhood in thus sharing in some material way in times of grief.

This plan provides:

First, that all ministers who choose to participate be expected to pay as dues the sum of one dollar for every two deaths in the fellowship, the first payment to be made at this session of the conference, which payment will be in advance and make available funds to be used at once or when needed. The next payment is to be made after the second death occurs, of those who participate.

Second, that the membership in the fellowship will be purely voluntary and that the organization or plan can begin with any number who choose to go into it, great or small.

Be it resolved, that we go on record favoring such a plan.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE W. ATKINSON.

RESOLUTION

To the 94th Session of the Holston Annual Conference, Knoxville, Tennessee:

We, the members of the Holston Annual Conference working within the bounds of the Johnson City District, wish to offer a resolution to the 94th session of the Holston Annual Conference, October 13 to 17, Second Methodist Episcopal Church, Knoxville, Tennessee, relative to a more comprehensive method of reporting data from the individual churches of a circuit as follows:

Whereas the Statistician's and the Treasurer's report blanks, now in use by the conference, do not provide for reporting the work done by the separate societies of the circuit, and

Whereas the interest and activity of the members of the individual societies of a circuit would be stimulated by reporting their respective parts of the total goal of the circuit.

Be it resolved that the Conference furnish suitable blanks, to each pastor in charge of a circuit, for reporting the progress of each local church on the pastoral charge covering the items in the Treasurer's and the Statistician's reports of the Annual Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN L. CHANEY.

President Western Group.

DAN JONES, Secretary.

REPORT OF BOARD OF MINISTERIAL TRAINING

It will be the purpose of this report, not so much to say what has been done, but what is to be done. It is hoped, then, that the report may serve in the nature of a manual for those with whom the Board of Ministerial Training must co-operate.

Three classes of ministers serve as pastors for our churches: (1) those who have graduated from the course of study; (2) undergraduates in the course of study; (3) accepted supply pastors.

Graduates. Eighteen correspondence courses are offered to the ministers of this group. The Athens Summer School of Ministerial Training has organized a graduate section, lasting five days of the first week of the school. Also, it is recommended that each District Superintendent give earnest consideration to the opportunity offered in the graduate courses for organized study groups in his district. A committee on graduate work will help in the organization of such groups in each District. The committee is composed of: J. E. Milburn, Kirk Waldo Robbins, D. W. Donaldson, W. R. Curtis, W. C. Daniels. Further information concerning graduate work may be obtained by addressing Dr. Allan MacRossie, 150 Fifth Avenue, New York.

Undergraduates. To be received on trial and admitted to the Conference Course of Study as an undergraduate, a candidate must have graduated from an approved college and have passed the subjects for "Reception on Trial" (Discipline, paragraph 545, section 1). When he has been so received he advances through the course of study as prescribed in the remainder of paragraph 545, under conditions set forth in paragraph 541-544. Books for each year's study, called "Directions and Helps," guide the student in his work. All work must be done according to the requirements as set forth in "Directions and Helps."

The instructors assigned to each subject and their Post Office addresses will be found in the Conference Journal. All written work must be sent to the assigned instructor. Return postage should be included.

Examinations are given only at the Summer School of Ministerial Training, with the exception of subjects for Reception on Trial which may be taken at the seat of the annual conference on the day preceding the opening of the annual conference.

Exemption from the Course of Study will be allowed only on the bases of official transcripts from the colleges and seminaries concerned. These must be in the hands of the Conference registrar two weeks before the meeting of the Annual Conference.

"Approved" colleges and seminaries are those approved by the University Senate. The conference registrar and the chairman of the Board have lists of the approved institutions. Most earnestly we request that every candidate for our ministry consult with these officers that he may ascertain whether the school of his choice is an approved school. Otherwise, he may present his credits in vain.

Required written work in subjects for examination must be received by the instructors before the opening of the Summer School of Ministerial Training. Refund of traveling expenses will not be made to students who fail to comply with this rule. All other written work is due two weeks before the Annual Conference. The Board will not be responsible for omissions in its records of work turned in after this time limit.

Accepted Supply Pastors. All that has been indicated above under the heading of "Undergraduates" applies to accepted supply pastor candidates except that there is no scholastic college requirements. The following items are emphasized. The Accepted Supply Pastor must come to the Summer School of Ministerial Training (Discipline, paragraph 544, section 7.) He must pass the courses for Reception on Trial before he can be placed in this relation (paragraph 546, section 1). Note a ruling of the Board of Bishops given last May, namely: An Accepted Supply Pastor who has completed the Course of Study for Local Preachers, is required, whether ordained or not, to take up the regular conference course.

The Summer School. The next session of the Athens Summer School of Ministerial Training will be held June 6-16, 1938.

The Annual Conference Benevolence for the Summer School was not largely honored this last year. We beseech the Conference to continue this benevolence and enter into it much more heartily. It is used to pay the travel expenses of the students whom the church requires to attend the Summer School. One dollar per 100 members or fraction thereof, sent to Brother Rupert R. Ghormley, Treasurer, before June 1st, will be money invested in better ministers.

The Commission on Courses of Study and its executive director, Allan MacRossie, receive our most hearty thanks for their helpful contributions of both money and guidance. We gladly give ourselves to the excellent program which they have created for the training of the ministers of Methodism.

Respectfully submitted for the Board by

R. A. KILBURN, Chairman.

Total first mortgage real estate notes.....	$ 7,230.00
Cost of Tucker Street property as shown on previous statement	2,158.22
Cost of 2-11 interest of property 2910 Third Avenue as shown on previous state- ment	305.02
Uninvested cash principal on hand Oct. 1, 1937	810.00

The above $7,230.00 of notes are secured by first mortgage deeds of trust upon improved real estate in Chattanooga; all bear from 5% to 6% interest per annum, payable semi-annually, and are fully protected by Title Guaranties and by fire insurance upon the improvements.

The Lela Dudley first mortgage was foreclosed by the Home Owners' Loan Corporation in the year 1935 thereby causing the second mortgage of $268.86 to be forfeited on account of the first. It was not to the interest of the Advocate Journal to bid in this property and assume over $2000.00 of first mortgage in order to protect the small second. This by error was omitted from last year's statement so the assets are reduced the amount of the second mortgage.

The first mortgage of Bessie M. K. Evans, 112 W. 45th Street for $750.00 for three years at 5% interest will be sold to the Methodist Advocate Journal on October 7, 1937. This will be listed on next year's statement.

Respectfully submitted,

HERMAN FERGER,
Treasurer.

... Memoirs ...

THE REV. DR. WILLIAM L. OLIVER

Dr. William L. Oliver, a native of Kentucky, was born June 14, 1872, and died July 7, at the age of sixty-five. He was admitted on trial in the Holston Conference in 1905 and became a full member in 1907. He was ordained deacon in Knoxville in 1907, by Bishop L. B. Wilson and elder in 1914 at Cleveland, Tenn., by Bishop T. S. Henderson. He served the following pastorates: Oliver Springs, Andersonville, Sunbright, Pikeville, Elm Grove and Asbury, Jones Chapel, Sevierville, Greeneville, Morristown, Johnson City District, Cleveland, Park City-Knoxville, Jellico. He retired in 1935. He is survived by a son and a daughter, two sisters and a brother. In the death of Dr. Oliver the Holston Conference has lost one of the best ministers it has produced. He was a true shepherd over the flocks. Funeral services were held in Park City Church, conducted by the Revs. Solon McNeese and W. H. Ragan, district superintendent. Interment was in Woodlawn Cemetery, Knoxville.

MRS. J. J. ROBINETTE

By J. M. Melear

Annie Cook was born July 22, 1860. She graduated from what is now known as Tennessee Wesleyan College. She became the wife of the Rev. J. J. Robinette October 23, 1883.

Her life was spent in a Methodist parsonage where she blessed her home, worked for and inspired the churches her husband served. She was the mother of three children. James and John died in infancy. Miss Faith, a teacher in the city schools of Knoxville, Tennessee, survives.

Mrs. Robinette had an abiding religious experience. High endeavor, worthy ideals, calm confidence, love of righteousness, placing the kingdom of God first—such were the characteristics which invigorated her faith and enabled her to attest the glory of her Master. She took this wonderful thing we call life and with the help of God glorified it. She believed in her royal heritage, zealously guarded it, bringing her redeemed womanhood under the control of Him whose cause she loved and whose will she obeyed.

Every difficulty she overcame, every lesson she learned, every doubt she conquered, gave her fresh courage to go forward to larger victories.

She was a great sufferer from bodily afflictions but never complained because she believed that they would work out for her a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory. Her faith has been vindicated.

Enriched by her experience, made strong by God's promises, touched by His spirit, resigned to His will, her life rose to the sublime heights of holy triumph known only to those vaiaant souls, who, while on earth, live in heavenly altitudes.

Her body was laid to rest beside her husband in beautiful Woodlawn cemetery, Knoxville, Tennessee, October 23, 1936.

"Why should our tears in sorrow flow when God recalls his own;
And bids them leave a world of woe for an immortal crown?
Is not e'en death a gain to those whose life to God was given?
Gladly to earth their eyes they close, to open them in heaven."

MRS. R. C. ROBERTSON

Mrs. Mollie Emert Robertson, widow of the late Rev. R. C. Robertson, was born October 5, 1855, and departed this life February 26, 1937, being in her eighty-second year. She was a member of Pigeon Forge M. E. Church from her youth and a member of the Ladies Aid Society from its organization more than twenty years ago, also a loyal supporter of all worthy interests.

She was a true and faithful wife, a loving, sacrificial mother. The burdens of her children were her burdens and she followed them always with her loving interest and prayers. Although a typical home-loving woman, she as a sincere follower of Christ, loving the songs of Zion, the House of God and the reading of the Bible. The latter giving her much comfort and inspiration. Even during her last illness as long as she was able she read her Bible daily and when too weak to read for herself she asked others to read for her. Also she asked the grand-children to play and sing hymns of her choice. Two of the last called for being, "In the Land Where We Never Grow Old," and "Trust and Obey."

She bore the sorrows of life bravely, keeping a steadfast faith, even when left a widow many years ago, and when saying goodbye to her youngest and oldest sons and a much loved grand-daughter who preceded her in death.

While keeping a beautiful faith in the Heavenly Father throughout her long, useful life, she had been lonely in her later years. It was not the will of her Master that this loneliness should continue but that she should depart and be with Christ and her loved ones gone before. He did not permit her to linger long in pain and helplessness and become a care to those she loved. But peacefully she went to sleep while her pastor, Bro. Robison, held her hand and repeated words of comfort and promise from the Bible she loved. Her children and grandchildren will miss her tender love, her friends and neighbors will miss her, the Ladies Aid will miss her; yet we know she is waiting for us on the other shore.

Therefore be it resolved:

1st. That in the going of "Aunt Mollie" we realize we have lost a sincere member.

2nd. That we extend to the family our sympathy, knowing that "He doeth all things well."

3rd. That this be placed on record in the Secretary's book and a copy furnished the family.

MRS. D. D. BUTLER,
MRS. J. T. EMORY,
MRS. W. E. O. ROBINSON,
Committee.

CARRIE A. MILLER BISHOP

Carrie A. Miller Bishop, widow of the late Elwell A. Bishop, was a daughter of John Stone and Belinda Miller, and was born and reared in Plainfield, New Hampshire.

She was married to Dr. Bishop in 1911 and came with him to the Southland when he was elected president of Murphy Collegeiate Institute and made her home in Sevierville for the remainder of her life.

Mrs. Bishop soon became recognized as an educational, social, and religious leader in the community. She nobly supported her husband in the work of the school and saw the institution grow from the small one room building down town to the splendid group of four buildings and the fine 63 acre farm and campus on Round Top.

She was instrumental in the organization of the Manthano Club in the town and was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, two of her ancestors having been among the little company who fought for our American liberty.

Her pastor found in her a loyal supporter and a faithful counsellor. She taught in the church school and was faithful in her attendance at all services of the church.

She was in frail health during the last year and was tenderly cared for by the children of Dr. Bishop by a former marriage. She quietly passed to rest on July 20 at the home of Miss Evelyn Bishop at Norris, Tenn. Funeral services were held at the First M. E. Church of Sevierville, Tennessee, in charge of Rev. Glenn Lippse, W. H. Ragan and H. G. Williamson. Burial was in Montpelier, Vermont.

MRS. ELLA COLEMAN NEWCOMB

Was born in Bloomington, Illinois, March 8, 1852, and received her grand coronation in Chattanooga, Tenn., April 2, 1937, giving her more than eighty-five years of happy sojourn here.

She was educated at Galesville, Wisconsin Seminary. Was married to Dr. G. T. Newcomb, September 18, 1878, to which union were born three children—Prof. Charles Newcomb, Asheville, N. C., Mrs. W. T. Stivers and Miss Gladys Newcomb, of Chattanooga.

Mrs. Newcomb accepted Christ in infancy, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, in which she lived a most devoted Christian, having been a member of the Highland Park church for thirty-eight years.

She, with her sainted husband, served pastoral charges in Wisconsin, Minnesota and Michigan. In 1890 they came to Athens, Tennessee, where her husband, Dr. G. T. Newcomb, became professor of Hebrew, Greek, Old Testament History and Biblical Hermeneutics. Later moved to Chattanooga, where he continued his educational work, in what was known as U. S. Grant University, until his departure in 1914 for his Heavenly home, to await the coming of his life-long devoted companion. To know these saints was to love them.

Mrs. Newcomb was a patient sufferer for many years, being almost an invalid most of that time. But, she was never known to complain; always cheerful and sunny. Her radiant smiles always greeted her callers, making it a benediction to be with her. She approached the end, and awaited her coronation with great calm.

"So, she took the one grand step beyond the stars of God,
Into the splendor, shadowless and broad,
Into the everlasting joy and light:
The zenith of the earthly life to come."

WILLIAM M. DYE.

MRS. C. W. MILLER

Mary E. Woodson Miller was born June 15, 1861, and died September 29, 1937. She was of an old pioneer family, whose name is perpetuated by Woodson Gap of Cumberland mountain in Campbell county. She received the principal part of her education at the Church school, Powell's Valley Seminary, but attended for a short while at East Tennessee University. She was married to C. W. Miller on June 8th, 1886, and was his faithful helpmate for seven years in the South American Mission of the M. E. Church, and afterward many years in the Holston Conference. While in the Mission she suffered an awful trial in the death of two children in ten days—a four year old boy, the pride of her life, and a girl of four months. This impaired her general health. She was the mother of seven children.

She has been a great sufferer for the past four years, being partially paralyzed, not able to walk, but she bore this with great patience, exemplifying the faith in Christ which she professed in her early youth. She leaves a husband, five children, many grandchildren, and many friends in many lands to mourn her departure.

MRS. JOSEPH M. DEW

Mrs. Etta Jennings Dew was born March 16, 1892, and departed this life August 25, 1937, her age being 45 years, 5 months, and 9 days.

Miss Etta Jennings was married to Joseph M. Dew, November 6, 1912, with whom she lived happily, sharing with him the toils and cares, joys and blessings of this life for nearly a quarter of a century.

To this union were born 8 children, 3 girls and 5 boys. Two of the boys, Joseph and David preceeded her to the land out of sight to the natural eye but clearly visible to the eye of faith, the others are Mrs. L. C. Connors of Clinton, Tennessee, Robert, William, Mary, Martha, and Edward at home with their father, at Lenoir City, Tennessee.

She professed faith in Christ in 1914, and joined the "Lonsdale M. E. Church" on whose services she was a faithful attendant and to whose principals she was loyal.

When Brother Dew felt the urge to preach he saw that he must go to school and to do this it was necessary to give up his business and sell their home. The spirit of sacrifice which enabled him to do this, enabled her to co-operate with him in his plans so she lived with him for 3 years in a cottage on the Campus at Athens, Tennessee, while he "studied to show himself an approved workman".

Sister Dew loved her husband, her children, her home and her church and when her husband was away in revivals, She uncomplainingly went forward with the work of the home, and as far as possible looked after the interest of the church. Her reading was of the "Bible" and the Literature approved by the church with other books and publications of a high order.

She was held in high esteem by those whom they served during the years that she was the wife of a methodist preacher. The last days were days of suffering but she was patient and uncomplaining and when the end came she was ready having talked to her husband and children about temporal affairs, and about the home beyond the river, she quietly fell asleep, passing from the "Church militant into the Church triumphant in glory".

The funeral was conducted in the "First M. E. church" of Lenoir

City, Tennessee, of which Brother Dew is pastor. Those officiating were: H. M. Hawk, W. D. Wilkinson, J. W. Cardwell, and John Babb.

The interment was at "Bell's Camp-ground", in Knox County, Tennessee.

Respectfully Submitted,

H. M. HAWK.

DR. E. A. LONG

Dr. E. A. Long was born in Athens, Tennessee, November 24, 1861, and died October 27, 1936. He was the son of Rev. William Long and Sarah Atlee Long, the former an esteemed member of the Holston Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church for a long period of years.

Dr. Long was graduated from Grant University, at Athens, and later from the University of Louisville, where he received his M. D. degree. He came to Johnson City in 1891 and immediately entered upon the practice of his profession. He was twice married; first, to Nora Range, to which union were born two children, Mary Vincent and Edwin Atlee; and second, to Jane Pierson Hardy to which union were born two children, Carroll Hardy and Frances Elizabeth, all of whom survive.

Dr. Long was conspicuous throughout his long and useful life for his loyalty and devotion to the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Johnson City. He became a member when a small congregation occupied an inconspicuous frame building on Main Street; he was chiefly instrumental in causing a larger and more commodious building to be erected at the corner of Main and Roan streets; and he took a prominent part in promoting the erection of the modern beautiful plant on Maple street now in use by the church.

Dr. Long was a man of deep religious convictions. His interest in all of the activities of the church never wavered. As official member and as trustee for so many years his fine judgment and foresight were invaluable. As the years crept upon him there seemed to be an increase in depth of religious conviction and faith, as if in preparation for that other life; and yet there was no lessening in his generous contributions to the church; he often inspired others by saying that he expected to give to the church during the present year according to its needs and his ability, and the same next year, and the next, so long as he was permitted to live.

A short time before his death Dr. Long was elected as a lay delegate for the term of four years to represent his church in the Holston Annual Lay Conference, but death intervened and he was not permitted to serve.

The local church at Johnson City will miss this true and faithful member. He has passed on and entered into the enjoyment of that eternal reward assured to the faithful: "Thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things."

S. E. MILLER

To the membership of all Boards and Committees whose recommendations will be printed in the Official Journal for our guidance.

We express gratitude to our Heavenly Father for these days; for our fellowship; for our church; for those whose shepherd we are to be, and for the Grace of God which can make us good ministers of Jesus Christ.

WALTER A. SMITH, Chairman.
